

Membership Benefits

- PROVIDE INPUT INTO DATA AND INFORMATION PRODUCTS
 Because the system is designed by users, for users, membership ensures that products and tools are best suited to meet your needs, thereby enhancing your organization's decision-support process.
- LEVERAGE YOUR ORGANIZATION'S MONITORING/OBSERVATION ACTIVITIES
 SECOORA supports and promotes standards and best practices in coastal and ocean monitoring to establish data interoperability and support the needs of local and sub-regional monitoring and observing systems in the region.
- PARTICIPATE IN COLLABORATIVE OPPORTUNITIES AND NETWORKING
 SECOORA membership provides unique opportunities to network with others interested in coastal and ocean observing.
- SET REGIONAL PRIORITIES
 SECOORA provides members opportunities to lead and coordinate the development of the integrated coastal and ocean observing system in the Southeast.
- ACCESS TO COASTAL AND OCEAN RELATED EDUCATIONAL PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS
 SECOORA members have access to educational materials, technology workshops, and current information on grant and fellowship opportunities as well as bringing state-of-the-art coastal ocean observing research and technology into the classroom.
- ACCESS TO OCEAN DATA MANAGEMENT AND EDUCATION AND OUTREACH SERVICES
 SECOORA provides members access to the software technology and tools that facilitate easy discovery, access, and use of needed data and tools by students, teachers and resource managers.
