

Collecting and Evaluating Environmental Data

Wrap-Up Activity

What are your observations based on the data you collected?

How might what you observed today be different on another day?

Why might it be important to survey the same site several times rather than just once?